Four Injured In Auto Accident

Train Hits Auto at Ellsworth, Friday.

Louis Orlowski, Charlevoix business man, was badly injured Friday afternoon at Ellsworth when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a Pere Marquette train. His two children and the little daughter of Mrs. F. E. Cartier of Charlevoix, were slightly injured.

A party consisting of Louis Orlowski, wife and two children and Mrs. F. E. Cartier and little daughter of Charlevoix motored to Ellsworth Friday afternoon. On arriving at Ellsworth the women left the car and Mr. Orlowski took the three children for a drive. On their return to pick up the ladies the car became stalled on the P. M. crossing about 400 feet from the depot and directly in front of the north bound train.

The train which had two extra cars on the head end struck the automobile near the center and carried it nearly 200 feet very badly damaging it. From what can be learned it seems that Mr. Orlowski seeing that the auto must be struck by the train attempted to get out of it and had his left leg caught between the car and the engine and was carried in this position until the train was stopped.

The four injured were picked up and placed on the train and brought to Charlevoix and taken at once to the hospital. The three children escaped with few minor bruises while Mr. Orlowski has a badly crushed leg and other cuts and bruises.

Mr. Orlowski is a member of the firm of S. Orlowski & Son, wholesale and retail grocers, of Charlevoix.

The Community and the Citizen

Property is of two classes—that owned by the individual and that owned by the community. The wealth which belongs to the community may be enjoyed by all who live in the community—rich and poor alike. It is this community wealth that makes a city attractive. It is found in maple shade trees, paved streets, cement walks, parks, attractive store windows, play grounds, fine school buildings and stately churches. East Jordan is growing richer every day because she is making improvements that are adding to her permanent wealth. Industries are needed to be sure and East Jordan is going to have more industries but along with these must come the city improvements or the industries will not be attracted. City improvements cost, to be sure. But that wealth is in a form that many can enjoy. Wealth so placed that it can be enjoyed by one hundred is worth just one hundred times as much as it would be so placed as to be enjoyed by but one.

The Interchurch Movement

Much Misunderstanding Concerning the Condition.

There have been many fragmentary accounts of the present situation of the Interchurch World Movement and therefore much misunderstanding concerning its present condition", said Dr. Earl R. North, State Secretary of the Interchurch World Movement, in a recent interview.

"The Movement has been heralded by many misinformed, as a failure, whereas it has been the most successful cooperative Movement in the history of the American church."

"During the past year, 550 of the counties in the United States have been completely surveyed, including one or more whole states. In 357 cities surveys have been set up, many of them almost completed."

"In preparation for the financial campaign, the Stewardship Department has stimulated education of thousands of Christians all over the country. Fifty-two pastors conferences were held, reaching fifty thousand of the ministers of the country. Two thousand county conferences reached over two million people."

"The Movement has attempted to do in a year, a task that should have been planned for a period of four or five years, and the criticism the Movement has received is because of the very great number of things it has attempted to do at the same time, which have therefore required what seems to be a very large sum of money."

"A report has gone out that the Financial Campaign was a failure. Instead of being a failure it has been a marvellous success. $220,000,000 was the amount definitely assigned to the various churches in this campaign. Of this amount, $180,000,000 has already been given. Apparent failure has been in the securing of gifts from persons not connected with the church. Bishop Henderson, recently said, "One of the gratifying results of the campaign was that practically no one desired to consider himself unaffiliated with any Christian church." As a result, the subscriptions from citizens, which it was expected would come through this separate fund, have been through denominational channels, and the Movement, which had expected to be able to give over to the churches at least enough to pay for the expenses of the Movement, finds it must make an appeal to the interested people of the country for the expenses of its program for the past year and for next year."

"Of the various church bodies that have met during the past few weeks the Reformed Church in United States, Presbyterian Church in U. S., Methodist Protestant, Methodist Episcopal, A. M. E. Zion, etc., have commended the work already done and instructed their proper authorities to continue with the Movement during the next year."

"The Presbyterian General Assembly directed that when the Interchurch World Movement was properly reorganized, the sum of $100,000 should be paid by that denomination for the current operating expenses of the Movement for the next year. The withdrawal of the Presbyterian church was from any further financial liability for indebtedness. The Executive Committee of the Presbyterian General Assembly was directed to provide for the selection of persons who would represent the church in its cooperative work. The Interchurch World Movement has only expended amounts authorized by the general committee and a careful examination of these expenditures by the Methodist General Conference resulted in a report that the Movement had not exceeded its budget."

"In thorough sympathy with the Movement for reorganization and with a decision that the Movement had accomplished so much in Michigan up to the present that it should be continued, a committee has been appointed by the State Advisory Board to enter fully into the plans for the continuance of the Michigan State Interchurch work."

"One of the criticisms made of the national movement is that the General Committee had not been officially appointed by the cooperating denominations. This was due to the fact that many of the national denominational meetings were held too late to appoint representatives who would be useful in the carrying out of the plans of the organization. Each denomination as it holds its national meeting this year is being requested to appoint its official representatives and thus make it impossible for this criticism."

"The Interchurch World Movement has proven beyond a doubt that the Protestant churches of America are a unit when it comes to the fundamentals of their faith and practice."

TESTED SNAKE'S VENOM

Expert Allowed Poison to Penetrate System for Use as Antitoxin.

As a result of allowing the venom of one of India's most poisonous snakes to enter her system so she might test an antitoxin she had compounded, Mme. Phisalix, Europe's most famous living expert on serpent venom, is hovering between life and death in Paris. When bitten by the snake, which she was handling, Mme. Phisalix could not resist the temptation to test her antitoxin and let the poison course through her body without taking measures to counteract it. Some of Europe's greatest doctors are battling to save her.

High Cost Led to Double Killing.

Flying into a rage when his wife pleaded for an increased allowance because of the high cost of living, Dr. C. Nary, dentist, fifty-four years old, of Louisville, Ky., slashed her throat with a paring knife and then killed himself.

Keep Greenbacks in Neckties.

Neckties are worn by virtually all of the woodsmen who are now drifting into Virginia, Minn., as the lumberjacks have taken to keeping their winter "stakes" pinned in the neckpieces instead of stuffed into their woolen socks.

Maid Threw Diamond Earrings in Fire.

The maid in clearing the table at the home of Mrs. Patrick Martin at Goshen, N. Y., brushed up a pair of diamond earrings, valued at $800, with the crumbs and threw them into the kitchen stove.

Married men have a hard enough time these days making a living for their regular families to stand much gossip from anybody on the subject of affluities.

Prohibition Act Constitutional

Supreme Court Upholds Both This And Volstead Act.

The United States Supreme court Monday upheld constitutional prohibition. In a sweeping decision the court declared the prohibition amendment to the constitution is valid, and held the Volstead act enforcing it is constitutional.

The court's action means the Volstead law prohibiting the sale of any beverage containing one half of one per cent or more of alcohol must be enforced in every state of the Union regardless of whether or not that state has ratified the amendment.

State laws providing higher alcoholic content, such as have been enacted in New Jersey, Wisconsin and Rhode Island are nullified.

Constitutionality of the Volstead law was based on the general principle laid down by Chief Justice Marshall more than a hundred years ago, that where state laws conflict with federal statutes federal laws are supreme.

A blanket decision was recorded by the court on seven suits. These were brought by or appealed from six states, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Missouri and Kentucky.

Now that they can't lay their misdoings to John Barleycorn a lot of folks are having a hard time digging up excuses that sound reasonable.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Elector of Charlevoix County:

I will be a candidate for State Representative on the Republican ticket, at the Primary Election, August 31, 1920. Appreciating your favors, I am

Yours truly,

Nobody respects a tightwad, but probably he doesn't want to be respected. Shorter hours of work don't necessarily mean longer hours of happiness. If they did a tramp should be the happiest of men, but none ever looks like he is.

The other kind is plentiful enough, but successful liars are born, not made. Some of them seem to think that "on with the dance," means "off with the clothes."

If you go around in the world of men with an apologetic face, people will always accept your apology.

If nobody understands you, you're not worth understanding.
